FRANK E. HOWE, Editor and Pub.

Monday, March 29, 1915.

Fishermen are now to be taxed fifty cents a year. This is the price of the Republican extravagant expenditure of the public money.—Burlington Clipper.

The Clipper looks at the issue from a partisan point of view. The fact is that the Republican controlled legislature has been so parsimonious, and the state of Vermont such a tightwad in dealing with the fish and game department that at last the fishermen and hunters have been driven to insist on imposing a special tax on themselves, in the form of a license, in order to maintain the finest and most enduring outdoor recreation on the face of the earth. And they are glad to pay for it. So far as we have observed most of the tears being shed over the matter are splashing from eyes which wouldn't recognize the difference between a bullfrog and a bull-pont. The deep feeling of these kindhearted gentlemen whose fishing experience has been gained in carrying home a pound of haddock from the fish market every Friday morning is indeed pathetic.

The killing of Christians in Persia is no worse than the killing of Christians in Austria and France. It is probably the view of the Kurds and other mountain tribes of Mesopotamia. The same cause, greed, led to the present conditions in both Asia and Europe. Russia, in spite of the immensity of her empire, coveted Persia and invaded that peaceful country without excuse or warrant. This happened several years ago and since then Persia has been under the heel of Russia. When the present war between Russia and Turkey broke out Russia undertook to attack Turkey from Persia. Barbaric Turkey followed the lead of "Christian" Russia and sent troops into Persia to fight the Russians there. This conflict aroused the savage tribes of Kurdistan and the present massacres are the result. They can be charged up to the greed and avarice of Russia, cheerfully assisted by the unspeakable Turk. The Kurd who is doing the actual killing deserves more honor and respect than either the Turks or the Russians. Dr. E. S. Soane, an eminent Briton, who has spent years in Persia and Turkey including Armenia, Kurdistan, Assyria and Mesopotamia, declares that the Kurds are the best race of that whole immense region. Dr. Soane's books were written before the war and he was looking at the question from an impartial view.

Attacked in Front and Rear.

A youngster of our acquaintance who has a faculty for getting into scrapes recently expressed the wish that he was a postage stamp. When asked why, he answered, "Because a postage stamp can only be licked once," whereupon we pointed out that the stamp received, besides the licking, a severe pinch in the face.—Boston Transcript.

Distinction.

"What distinction do you make between 'entertainment' and 'art'?" "Entertainment," replied the theater manager, "is what people want. 'Art' is what people want to make other people think they want."—Washington Star.

Pretty Thin.

"Thin?" replied the man who was talking about a mutual acquaintance. "Well, he's so thin that when he eats a pancake he can only swallow it one piece at a time!"—Pittsburgh Press.

ROAD BUILDING IN SCHOOLS.

Plan to Interest Oklahoma Boys in Good Roads Movement.

The good road educational movement is to reach the country boy in Oklahoma through the rural schools, as the result of advocacy of such a plan by Colonel Sidney Suggs of Ardmore, state highway commissioner, who has secured the endorsement and co-operation of other prominent state officials.

The plan as outlined by Colonel Suggs is to organize a good roads and tree planting club in every rural school in the state, have the county or state highway engineer visit the schools, following the organization of the clubs, and proceed to lay out one-fourth or one-half mile of road leading from the schoolhouse. In every instance the school club shall assist in the survey, the laying out of the road, in securing the easements from the adjoining property owners. The club boys shall carry the chain, set the grade stakes, learn just how plans and profiles are made and be taught that this piece of good road will be used for generations to come.

Only the building of a common dirt road will be undertaken at the start by the boys. They will be taught that if they desire in the future to put gravel or macadam on the road that they have in the well built dirt road a foundation already prepared for such an improvement. In this manner, too, they may be taught to use such materials as are most suitable and convenient at the time and the nearest at hand.

Settled the Duel.

Lord March, afterward the Marquis of Queensberry, was not accustomed to view a duel with unbecoming apprehension and usually attended an affair with an air of enjoyment that often was decidedly displeasing and embarrassing to his adversary. But he was served at last with that sauce which the proverb explains is for the gander as well as for the goose. It was when he was challenged to fight an Irish sportsman, Lord March appeared on the ground accompanied by a second, surgeon and other witnesses. His opponent arrived soon afterward with a similar retinue, but added to by a person who staggered under the weight of a polished oak coffin, which he deposited on the ground, and up, with its lid facing Lord March and his party. Lord March became decidedly uncomfortable when he read the inscription plate, engraved with his own name and title and the date and year of death, and peace was patched up.

CARUSO

World-famous Tenor, says:

"Tuxedo completely satisfies my tobacco taste. It is mild and has a delicious flavor. Most important of all, from a singer's standpoint, Tuxedo does not irritate my throat."

"Tuxedo Does Not Irritate My Throat"

The non-irritating quality of Tuxedo which Caruso praises is due to the original "Tuxedo Process" by which the tobacco is treated. This process refines the tobacco and absolutely removes all bite and sting.

Many thousands of men think they cannot smoke a pipe, for fear the tobacco might burn or parch their mouths. Tuxedo has done away with any such possibility. You can smoke Tuxedo all day long, without any irritation whatsoever—indeed, with increasing pleasure.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is made from rich, mild, fragrant Kentucky Burley—acknowledged to be the finest pipe-tobacco in the world—aged until it is pipe-perfect and smokes coolly and slowly.

You cut off an inch of inspiration and real joy every hour you stay away from Tuxedo. Because it's so good, so true, so delicious, so fragrant, its memory lingers every time your smoke-appetite gets tuned up.
